
BERLEY BULLETIN – Roktober

Griffin and Morris Village Butchers in Ye Old Berwick

Trash Talk

The premier event of the fishing calendar – Bemm! As usual the comp runs over 3 days, this year was from Thursday 19th to Saturday 21st. For those who headed up on the Wednesday 18th it was one of a very few occasions since going to Bemm that the Marlo Pub balcony was the place to be, just magnificent.

A quick fish at the Bemm Wednesday arvo yielded bugger all but it was bliss out there and the beers were better.

Thursday was a different day altogether with winds whipping up and white caps on the lake. It didn't bother Deano McGill, he just got amongst them in his pedal power kayak. There was some good fish caught with Trimma in the front running but still a long way from the winning post. Some afternoon driveway dancing with Chris – ay what?

On Friday the weather was just as bad, making it hard to hold bottom. There was plenty of small fish on the bite. Deano hooked onto a ripping 70cm flatty. Of the lake at Reg's for a cook up it was perfect but bugger all fish in the channel. . Someone partied too hard for their birthday! Happy birthday Clav! Ralph, ralph!!

Back onto the lake and bouncing. Good thing Carrots let us go home early for a rest. PLUNGE came into play, enough said on that. Trimma was still leading two thirds of the way around. A great Friday night cook up as normal, thanks Foth and helpers

Saturday and into the home straight, Bish hit the front with not far to the finish line. Persistence, patience and a last minute surge by Clav saw him first past the post with a 1kg bream as well as a few other bits and pieces for his trophy bag. In the meantime Mick went "Boom" and cleaned up the pub tipping including some apple barreling, see team app for the clip. Carrots jumped on Mick's ride and had a little bang himself, nice pick fella's. A quiet Saturday night for some but not so for others, sensational performance! Let's do it all again next year!

General Business

If you purchased apparel and have not paid, please cough up, your only ripping your mates off – thanks for that line Andrew M!

Note no boat points awarded as none of the winners had their own boat, that's got to be a first

The clubs 30th Anniversary was held on a sunny 29 October at Di Angelos estate vineyard. About 47 members and partners including founding members John Shaw, John Hill and Sue Gundolf (Hill) enjoyed a great afternoon of sipping and nibbles to celebrate the milestone. Great job on arranging the event Andrew M!
